Product Inspiration

House fries have never been so easy and delicious. Our fries eliminate the time, labor and high cost of cutting potatoes back-of-the-house. They're sliced from the finest skin-on potatoes for a genuine made-from-scratch look and cook to a crisp, beautiful golden brown. Our fries also deliver a higher yield than raw potatoes because there's no loss from peeling, trimming bruises or product thrown away by rushed employees. Plus, our fries aren't affected by the typical seasonal price and quality fluctuations that can make it difficult for you to manage costs.
