POPPY SEED & ROASTED ONION BUN

If any gourmet sandwich roll can elevate the status of a hot dog, this bun is it. Customers will relish the flavorful taste of our exceptional Poppy Seed & Roasted Onion Bun.

Designed and created for chefs with high standards

Our Chef's Line™ Poppy Seed & Roasted Onion Bun is a premium offering that adds delicious flavor to your signature sandwich menu and value for maximum profits.

Product Inspiration

What propels this soft, golden-cruled bun into a culinary league of its own?

The roasted onion and chive dough is washed with whole egg, rack-oven baked with a flash of steam, then topped with poppy seeds. Customers will flock to your establishment just for the bun.

Food Fact

Various western cultures claim to have invented the hot dog bun. Whether by the 4th Earl of Sandwich, John Montagu in 1762, German immigrants in the 1800's, or even a Bavarian concessionaire at the 1893 World's Fair in Chicago, we celebrate its great function and taste.
