

PREMIER REGIONAL FOODSERVICE MEETING

FOOD TRENDS FOR FOODIES - WINTER 2017

Make plans to attend the winter Premier Regional Foodservice Meetings, coming to a city near you. Whether you are a foodservice director of a hospital, nursing home, senior living, college and university, K-12 or commercial account, you will find savings ideas and a wealth of food-trend information that will keep you ahead in your field.

"Just like becoming an expert in wine – you learn by drinking it, the best you can afford – you learn about great food by finding the best there is, whether simply or luxurious. Then you savor it, analyze it, and discuss it with your companions, and you compare it with other experiences." – Julia Child, Mastering the Art of French Cooking

STAYING ON TREND

Food preferences are changing quickly across the nation, as world flavors are becoming more mainstream. Cooking shows have made for more educated consumers. If you stay status quo in your foodservice offerings, you will quickly become outdated.

The lunch vendor show will be entirely devoted to some of the latest food trends. Contracted manufacturers will take items on contract and transform them into on-trend applications sure to "wow" your customers.

COFFEE AND MORE COFFEE

Nothing is more personal than what customers view as a good cup of coffee. During the morning vendor show, you will be able to taste and discuss your options with nine vendors awarded in the coffee category. Whether it be the first cup of the day or the cup that rounds out the evening meal, coffee can be what keeps your customers coming back.

Customers are also paying high prices to get upscale coffee drinks outside of your facility. Discuss how you can capture that revenue.

FOOD COSTS

Do you want to know how food inflation affects your food cost? Gain insight into the inflation forecasts for 2017.

VEGETARIAN OFFERINGS

Vegetarian items are becoming more mainstream. Meet the needs of your vegetarian customers or those flexitarians just opting for a vegetarian item.

This meeting qualifies for:

- 2.0 CEUs and 3.0 exhibit hours for registered dietitians/diet technicians
- 2.5 CEUs and 3.0 exhibit hours from the Certified Dietary Managers Association
- 3.0 hours of continuing education hours and 3.0 exhibit hours from ACF for certified chefs

Please RSVP by clicking on this link, or RSVP to your local account manager.
