SUNSET BLEND

For a unique, colorful and delectable vegetable side, Cross Valley Farms® Sunset Blend combines butternut squash, candy-stripe beets and golden beets for a ready-to-cook product. This product is pre-washed, pre-peeled and pre-cut, reducing prep time and saving labor.
Cross Valley Farms® offers the freshest fruits, vegetables and herbs straight from the field to kitchens across America. Each product is harvested in prime growing regions and packed at the peak of ripeness to ensure garden fresh color, taste and texture. Plus, each fruit and vegetable meets the highest standards of food safety. All Cross Valley Farms field-fresh produce is brought to life under the sun and stands as a testament to the perfection of nature.

Product Inspiration
Colorful, farm-grown vegetables are a complement to almost any entrée. Cross Valley Farms Sunset Blend offers healthy butternut squash and candy-stripe and golden beets in one pleasing package. Pre-peeled, pre-washed and ready to cook, these veggies are fresh, never frozen. Low-fat, vitamin-rich beets and squash are trending as nutritional menu offerings. Easily used in soups, salads, sides or garnish, Sunset Blend saves preparation time and makes for great presentation.
